A HUNDRED YEAR JOURNEY

1903

Everard Carter established the Chemists and Allied Trades Packing Company in Yorkshire.

1910

The company originally specialised in herbal remedies made from botanical ingredients, herbs and essential oils, for example; Cherry Slumber Tea, Neoclenz Herbal Laxative and Nutona. The most notable were BarkOff (a cough mixture), Thermo-Rub and Inferno!

1928

Everard's young nephew, Norman Carter, started to help his uncle develop the business. When Everard retired, Norman took over the reins and went on to change the company name to Carter brothers - still a family business.

1935

The company has always been based in Yorkshire and formulated and manufactured its' own products on site. The original premises were in Frizinghall just outside Bradford.

1948

Growth of the NHS caused a decline in the demand for traditional herbal remedies. Customers started to use products and medicines prescribed by their doctors and Carter Brothers had to look for new opportunities to grow their business.

1955

Norman's daughter Joan joined the business, closely followed by her new Dutch husband, Dirk Fikkert. Barry Taylor, Norman's second son-in-law also became part of the company and it went from strength to strength as they began to diversify into bath, body and skin care products.

1968

When Norman retired, Dirk Fikkert, became managing Director and the business was renamed once again to Fikkerts Limited. Dirk was responsible for the very first Fruits of Nature range. This collection has evolved and been redeveloped over the years but still forms part of our offering today.

1986

The company moved into the safe hands of the fourth generation of Fikkerts, Richard Fikkert (Everard's great-nephew) and his wife, Julia.

TODAY

The company has evolved over the years while remaining true to its cherished heritage and family values with generations of expertise. Today, Fikkerts is committed to developing innovative products that honour its past while embracing the future.

OUR COMMITMENT

All our products are formulated from natural ingredients, utilising various plant or herb extracts and essential oils - which are gentle on your skin. All our products are paraben and sulphate free.
